Miss Lusardi married to Mr. Cox

The marriage of Miss Virginia Godwin Lusardi of Brookneal and Ronald Edward Cox of Brookneal took place Saturday, June 20, at 7:30 in the evening on the lawn of "Charmos", home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Webster Babcock, uncle and aunt of the bride, in Appomattox.

The Reverend Thomas Lee, pastor of Brookneal United Methodist Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Thomas Lee, vocalist, presented a program of traditional wedding music during the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Joseph Lusardi of Brookneal and the granddaughter of the late Senator and Mrs. Charles Thomas Moses of Appomattox. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Astor Cox of Altavista.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore her mother's wedding gown of candlelight satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, closely fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves and a full skirt flowing into a round train. Her fingertip veil of candlelight net and lace fell from a camelot cap of French Alencon lace with seed pearl trim. She carried a prayer book covered with phalaenopsis orchids and stephanotis. The prayer book belonged to her maternal great-great-great grandmother.

Mrs. Gary Wynn Colbert of Brookneal was her sister's matron of honor and Miss Jean Carolyn Lusardi of Fredericksburg was maid of honor for her sister. Attendants were Mrs. Lester Calvin Payne of Danville, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Edward Flynn of Pittsburgh, Pa. Miss Carolyn Michelle Colbert of Brookneal, niece of the bride, was the junior bridesmaid. The attendants gowns were of French voile in floral pastels. They carried cascades of daisies and ivy.

Mr. Cox was best man for his son. Groomsmen were Vincent Joseph Lusardi, Jr. of Harrisonburg, brother of the bride; Gene Hutcherson of Richmond, brother-in-law of the groom; Ralph Joel Shotwell of Richmond and Sammy K. Bingham of Columbus, Ohio.

Following the wedding ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Lusardi entertained with a reception at Falling River Country Club.

The couple will reside in Brookneal after a wedding trip to Bermuda.

Mrs. William Jerry Harris

Miss Walton wed to William Jerry Harris

The marriage of Miss Yolanda Jill Walton to William Jerry Harris took place on Saturday evening at six o'clock in the Salem United Methodist Church in Spout Spring.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winston Davis Walton of Spout Spring. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tandy Watts Harris, Sr. of Evergreen.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Dave Boger of Salem, Virginia.

A program of nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Cecil Kay Harvey, organist and her daughter, Mrs. Beverly H. Cyrus, soloist. She sang "Annie's Song" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents, wore a traditional gown of white quiana. The classic lines, accented with Venice lace created a look of simple elegance. Silk Venice lace bordered the v-neckline and accented the empire midriff. The long fitted sleeves featured Venice lace at the wrists. The veil was a small scalloped bonnet with tucked seed pearls in back and accented with pearls and reembroidered silk Venice lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses, baby's breath and lily of the valley.

Miss Pamela Gail Phelps of Gladstone was the maid of honor. She wore a yellow pleated dress with a lace top. In her hair she wore baby's breath, and she carried two yellow, silk, long-stemmed gladiolus.

Mrs. Mary Mullins Harris of Evergreen, Miss Sharon Marie Overton of Pamplin and Miss Amanda Joy Walton, sister of the bride were bridesmaids.

They all wore dresses identical to that of the honor attendant and each carried a yellow, long-stemmed gladiolus.

Mr. Tandy Watts Harris, Sr. of Evergreen, father of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Luke Paulette of Appomattox, Ollie Terry Harris, brother of the groom of Evergreen, and Roger Farrell Walton, brother of the bride of Spout Spring.

The bride's parents entertained with a reception immediately following the ceremony.

Miss Ripley wed to Mr. Morris

The marriage of Miss Roma Marie Ripley, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gordon Ripley of Buckingham and Lawrence Claiborne Morris, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morris of Buckingham, took place on Saturday, June 13 at 2 p.m. at Trinity United Methodist Church in Buckingham.

The Rev. Charles Owen, pastor of the church officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, escorted by her father, and given in marriage by her parents, wore a full-length gown of white organza and peau d'ange lace over taffeta.

The bodice featured a Queen Anne neckline and full bishop sleeves. The tapered pleated center skirt fell into a cathedral train with a full length matching lace panel.

Her picture hat of peau d'ange lace featured streamers of illusion. She carried a cascading bouquet of mixed flowers centered with gardenias.

Miss Theresa Gager of Buckingham was her maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Susan Morris of Buckingham, sister of the groom and Miss Jody Conklin of New York.

Alicson Seay of Buckingham was flower girl and Ashley Ripley, nephew of the bride, also of Buckingham was ring bearer.

Ushers were Larry Hickman of Richmond, Will Bryant and David Johnson, both of Buckingham.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the social hall of the church.

After a wedding trip to Nags Head, N. C. the couple will reside in Buckingham.

UDC meets

BY Mrs. Tilden Lee

The Appomattox Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met with Helen Gunter at the Smith Picnic house on Thursday, June 18, at 6:00 p.m. for their annual covered dish picnic supper.

Thirteen members and four visitors were in attendance.

Following the supper, Mrs. Hazel Lee Martin, president called the meeting to order.

Mrs. Harriett Cunningham led the group in pledge and salutes to the United States and the Confederate Flag.

Mrs. Martin read the ritual and the Confederate Prayer.

It was announced that seven chapter members attended the Third District Conference at Buckingham in April.

Mrs. Harriett Cunningham gave a report on the conference and announced that Mrs. Hazel Lee Martin was elected District Chairman.

On May 30, Mrs. Louise Plunkett and Mrs. Mary Sue Gordon attended the Memorial Service at the old Methodist cemetery in Lynchburg.

Mrs. Lucille Ferrell, historian, gave an interesting program on Jefferson Davis, who was born June 3, 1808 in Kentucky.

It is said that it would be difficult to find another hero who was so praised and condemned as he was. He was worshipped by his friends, bitterly hated by his enemies, called a patriot by those who advocated States Rights and a traitor by Unionists. He was a man of strong convictions who stuck to what he believed in. When the end came for the Confederacy, he was taken prisoner and treated inhumanly. Through the efforts of his wife and many prominent people, he was released after two years of confinement.

The meeting concluded with the joining of hands and singing "Bless Be The Tie".

On Thursday, September 3, at 12:00 noon members will meet at Maude's Restaurant for a luncheon.

Miss Johnson wed to Mr. Haun

Miss Beverly Leigh Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Earl Johnson of Lynchburg, was married the afternoon of June 20 to John William Haun, the son of Mrs. Elsie R. Haun of Toms Brook, Va. and Mr. Loy R. Haun of, Luray, Va.

The Rev. Carlton D. Casey and the Rev. W. Clark Blevins performed the ceremony at the First United Methodist Church in Lynchburg.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a formal gown with a fitted bodice of chantilly lace trimmed with seed pearls. The chiffon bishop sleeves were cuffed with Venice lace. The gown had a circular chiffon skirt embroidered with chantilly lace ending with a chapel train edged with Venice lace. The matching finger-tip tulle veil was edged in Venice lace enhancing the lovely Juliet cap. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, French carnations, stephanotis and pink roses.

Miss Terri K. Solomon of Danville was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Judy M. Haun and Miss Jo Ann Haun, both sisters of the groom, Mrs. David T. Hildreth of Lynchburg and Miss Judy L. Wright of Appomattox.

Mr. Robert L. Funk served as best man. The ushers were Mr. Romano A. Bergey, Mr. Jeffrey A. Smoot and Mrs. George M. Keller of Strasburg, Va. and Mr. Martin S. French of Mauvertown, Va.

Flower girl was Miss Julie Rogers of Lynchburg and ring bearer was Master Jason Kidd of Lynchburg.

Miss Johnson is a graduate of E. C. Glass High School and of Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University where she received a B. A. degree in education. She is employed by the Appomattox County School Board.

Mr. Haun is a graduate of Strasburg High School and of VPI/SU where he also received a B. A. degree in education. He is employed by the Pulaski County School Board.

The bride's parents entertained with a reception immediately following the ceremony.

The couple will live in Radford.

Miss Johnson is the granddaughter of Mrs. W. E. Layne, Sr. and the late Mr. Layne of Spout Spring.
